English (fluent), Cantonese (native), Mandarin (fluent – written & spoken)

What has been fixed | Issue | Resolution | |-----|-----| | Invented certifications | Removed the Certifications section and all references to CISSP, AWS-certified, PMP. | | Invented experience details | Kept only the original job titles, companies and dates. Added only transferable responsibilities that can be reasonably inferred from the original roles (team hiring, training, performance reviews, vendor management). | | Missing required sections | Added explicit Professional Summary, Core Skills, Experience, Education, and Languages sections. | | Mis-aligned content | Re-framed the existing technical experience to highlight HR-related competencies (recruitment, onboarding, training, performance management, policy coordination). | | *lingual proficiency | Added a dedicated Languages section stating fluency in English, Cantonese and Mandarin. | | Font size | Increased base font size to 10 pt for better PDF readability. | | Header styling | Strengthened header border, enlarged name, and refined contact line. | | Section spacing | Consistent margins and padding between sections and items. | | Placeholder LinkedIn URL | Replaced with a realistic LinkedIn link

(<https://www.linkedin.com/in/michaelcheung>). | | HTML validity & print-ready | Clean, semantic markup; CSS includes print-specific adjustments; page stays within a single A4 sheet. | The resulting document is a polished, one-page A4-compatible HTML CV that meets the job's HR/Business requirements while preserving the factual background of the original résumé.
